ALMACERRO

Named in Wine Spectator's Top 100 Most Exciting Wines of 2024

—Top 100 Wines Revealed at WineSpectator.com—

NAPA, California (November 26th, 2024)—Wine Spectator, the world's leading authority on wine, has announced 2021 Almacerro Estate Vineyard Cabernet has been named the #94 wine in this year's list of the Top 100 Most Exciting Wines of 2024. The full list can be found online at top100.wine spectator.com.

"Our annual list encapsulates the world of wine, highlighting everything from stellar vintages to leadership changes at wineries, and offering insights into tradition and innovation across global wine regions," said Jeffery Lindenmuth, Executive Editor, Wine Spectator. "We hope you enjoy this exciting selection of iconic wineries, top values, and emerging talents that make up Wine Spectator's Top 100 of 2024."

"Our aim is to make nuanced, balanced, and elegant wines from our cherished, small hilltop acreage and it is an honor to be recognized for our talents and for producing a wine that inspires excitement," said Lindsay Dale, Almacerro general manager.

These 100 bottles were chosen from over 10,500 wines reviewed in blind tastings by Wine Spectator's editors. Selections are based on four criteria: quality (based on score), value (based on price), availability (based on the number of cases made or imported into the U.S.) and the "X-factor"—a compelling story and excitement behind the wine.

Wine Spectator's Top 100 list has been an annual highlight since 1988, showcasing the best of wine from the past year, wineries worth watching in the future, and the producers and wines that Wine Spectator's editors are most enthusiastic about.

The full Top 100 list will be featured in the magazine's December 31st issue.
